URGENT !!!

Your attendance is needed at the next hearing of Ohio Senate Bill 310. This bill if passed will ban a long list of exotic and native mammals and reptiles and will allow Ohio's Director of Agriculture to add even more animals to the list.

We need you to come to the next hearing which is tentatively scheduled for the morning of Tuesday, April 17, 2012. Bring others with you; we need to fill the hearing room. At the last hearing on March 27, over 200 animal owners showed up. We need to do it again and let the Senate committee know that the animal owners of Ohio oppose this legislation that's being pushed on us by Jack Hanna, the Columbus Zoo, Governor Kasich, and the Humane Society of the U.S.

Address where the hearing will be held:

Ohio Statehouse
78 S. High St.
Columbus, OH 43215

Meet in the Rotunda at 10:00 a.m. and you will be shown to the hearing room.

Even if you are not an Ohio resident, if you do business in Ohio, you need to be at the hearing.

Important: Email oaao@windstream.net or call (937) 676-2058 on or after Friday, April 13 to confirm that the hearing is still scheduled for that day. The Senate committee Chairman could change the date, time, or even cancel the hearing, so it's very important that you call or email us before driving to Columbus.
